Mr. George Bush, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Bush:

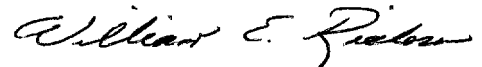

The Brookhollow Rotary Club of Dallas, Texas, would like a representative from your Dallas office to speak to our Club in October on a topic of your choice.

✓ In view of recent media criticism of the CIA it seems appropriate and fair to hear the other side of the coin. Speaking to service clubs such as the Rotary would afford the CIA an opportunity to present positive accomplishments to responsible, leading members of the community.

The Brookhollow Rotary Club is comprised of approximately fifty (50) members who either own their own business or who are managers of national firms. We are a Breakfast Club and meet every Monday morning at 7:30 AM in the Diamond Club of the Zales Corporation Building.

Consideration of this request is appreciated.

Very truly yours,

William E. Richeson
Vice President, General Mgr.
